GUARDS DOMINATE DAKTRONICS MEN'S BASKETBALL DIVISION II ALL-EAST REGION SQUAD

(PRINCETON, W.Va.)---High scoring guards dominate the selections for the 2006-07 Daktronics NCAA Division II All-East Region men's basketball squad. Sports information directors from regional institutions select the squad.

West Virginia State guard Ted Scott was the top vote-getter and claimed the regional Player of the Year honor. Fellow guards Anthony Atkinson (Barton), DeMario Grier (Pfeiffer), and Corey McDuffie (West Liberty State) are also first team all-region honorees. Concord forward Tyrone Anderson is the lone forward on the five-player squad. All five standouts will now advance to the Daktronics Division II All-America ballot.

Six players are on the second team due to a tie in the voting. Four Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference stars earned second team accolades. Billy Arre (Lock Haven), Chuck Davis (Shippensburg), Charlie Parker (Millersville), and Darren Tielsch (Edinboro) represent the PSAC. Mount Olive's Elijah Rouse and West Liberty State's Shane Maynard complete the team.

Daktronics is a world leader in programmable electronic signs, electronic and digital displays and scoreboards.

The complete team follows:

WVIAC Tournament Rematches in the NCAA Postseason

West Virginia Conference Tournament finalists West Virginia State and Alderson-Broaddus will meet for the second time in a week on Saturday in the first round of the NCAA East Regional. WVSU won an exciting 80-79 contest in the Charleston Civic Center last Saturday night, but recent history doesn't bode well for the Jackets. Conference teams have met in the WVIAC and NCAA Tournaments six times over the past 11 seasons. The loser in the conference tournament has avenged their loss on five of the six occasions. The complete list of rematches follow:

NOTES:

- a.—The District 28 playoff was a four-team tournament from 1953-58.
 b.—The District 28 playoff was a three-game series between the WVIAC regular season and tournament champions from 1959-93. No playoff was held when one squad won both events.
 c.—The 1966 District 28 playoff was reduced to one game.
 d.—The NAIA Tournament seeded the top sixteen teams of the 32-team event.
 e.—Charleston was formerly known as Morris Harvey. Salem International was formerly known as Salem and Salem-Teikyo.
 f.—WV Wesleyan received an at-large bid to the 1983 NAIA Tournament despite losing to Salem in the district playoff. Central Washington was declared ineligible for the tournament which opened the door for the Bobcats' bid.
